

International Organization for Migration (IOM)

The UN Migration Agency

Call for Curriculum Vitae 2022-13

Open to Internal and External Candidates

Position Title : Site Social Worker, Temporary Accommodation Centres
Duty Station : Ghent, Belgium
Classification : Ungraded
Type of Appointment : Special Short-Term contract, until 30th November 2022 with possibility of extension
Estimated Start Date : As soon as possible

Closing Date : Published until 26 July 2022

Established in 1951, IOM is a Related Organization of the United Nations, and as the leading UN agency in the field of migration, works closely with governmental, intergovernmental and non-governmental partners. IOM is dedicated to promoting humane and orderly migration for the benefit of all. It does so by providing services and advice to governments and migrants.

Context:

Ukrainian displaced persons arriving in Belgium can register themselves to receive temporary protection. Those who wish to do so may request accommodation. For Ukrainian displaced persons who need a place to stay, the Ghent municipality has identified IOM Belgium and Luxembourg as a partner to support the day-to-day operation of temporary accommodation centres. This would ensure effective functioning of safe places from which the affected population can further look for sustainable options, by integrating into the regular housing market and find income generating activities for the duration that temporary protection remains granted.

Under the overall supervision of the Chief of Mission, and direct supervision of the Project Manager, the successful candidate will be responsible for the overall management of the Temporary Accommodation Centres for Ukrainian refugees in Ghent, as well as for the coordination with stakeholders

IOM aims to provide safe, age- and gender-appropriate living arrangements and assistance.

Core Functions / Responsibilities:

- Function as a direct liaison between residents of the Center and medical, psychosocial and/or legal services;
- Remain available, accessible and approachable to ensure residents of the Center have a trusted resource person on site with whom to share any comments, concerns or recommendations;
- Assess residents' needs, situations and challenges to identify potential solutions and goals in order to facilitate their integration;
- Research and refer residents to community resources;

- Advocate for and develop plans to improve residents' well-being;
- Encourage and support whichever modality of site governance system as preferred by the residents to take place;
- Ensure at all times that the Accommodation Centres are safe protection environments and that appropriate referral pathways are respected in case of any harm caused to residents
- Perform such other duties as may be assigned.
